

Lisa Perotti-Brown 2015 Wine Advocate Review Issue# 219, June 2015

2013 Glaetzer Amon-Ra

Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2013 Amon Ra has youthfully toned-down notes of blackcurrants, blackberry preserves, plums and cracked pepper with nuances of licorice, dark chocolate, cedar and black earth. The palate has wonderful balance and elegance for its commendable concentration and fullness, with tons of muscular fruit and spice layers framed by grainy tannins and just enough freshness, finishing with great persistence.

96 POINTS

2013 Glaetzer Anaperenna

Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2013 Shiraz Cabernet Anaperenna is intensely scented of cassis, crushed blackberries and black cherries with hints of cedar, cloves and anise. Full-bodied and full-throttle on the flavors, it fills the mouth with primary black fruits and baking spices, supported by grainy tannins and plenty of freshness, finishing long.

2013 Glaetzer Bishop

Medium to deep garnet-purple, the 2013 Shiraz The Bishop has a strapping, black fruit, tar and chargrill-laced nose with wafts of bacon and licorice. Unashamedly big, rich, full and fleshy in the mouth, it has a solid backbone of rounded tannins and lively acidity, finishing with excellent length.

2013 Glaetzer Wallace

A Shiraz and Grenache blend, the 2013 Wallace has a medium garnet-purple color and notes of kirsch, warm red currants and mulberries with suggestions of spice cake, orange peel and potpourri. Soft, generous and fullbodied, it gives tons of red and black fruit preserves flavors and a spicy undercurrent, finishing long and with a refreshing lift.
