

James Halliday Australian Wine Companion 2015 Edition

“Outstanding five star winery” James Halliday Australian Wine Companion 2015 Edition

97 POINTS

Amon-Ra Shiraz 2012

Full, deep purple-crimson; filled to the brim with blackberry, satsuma plum, licorice, spice and dark chocolate, it carries its alcohol without faltering; its well-inserted, high quality, cork should allow it to reach its destiny somewhere after its 21st birthday, supported by its supple, ripe tannins and integrated oak.

95 POINTS

Anaperenna Shiraz Cabernet 2012

Youthful crimson-purple; a shiraz cabernet blend that has awesome depth, yet is not the least extractive, and carries the burden of its alcohol very well. Satsuma plum and sundry spice-poached black fruits, licorice and oak all join the flavour queue, tannins the finishing line.

95 POINTS

Bishop Shiraz 2012

Deep crimson – purple; a scaled down version of Amon-Ra, elegance substituted for the flamboyant concentration of Amon-Ra, but the flavour spectrum very similar, the only difference a pleasing savoury note on the finish of this wine.

93 POINTS

Wallace Shiraz Grenache 2012

Good colour; a light to medium-bodied blend, led by the shiraz that invests the wine with a spicy, gently savoury edge, balanced by the sweeter, juicier grenache; minimal tannin impact.
