

Langton's Classification

GLAETZER Amon-Ra

Glaetzer Amon-Ra Shiraz has been included at the outstanding category in the sixth edition of the Langton's Classification, just announced on 1st May 2014.

Langton's Classification is a 'form guide' of Australia's best performing and most prized wines, and is arguably the most famous and widely respected wine classification outside Europe.

Ben Glaetzer at the official launch in Adelaide.

"Recognition from Langton's is an honour and testament to the magnificent attributes of the Barossa Valley and in particular our vineyard home of Ebenezer" - Ben Glaetzer