2016 Wallace, 92 Points

The 2016 has to be among the best vintages of Wallace we have tasted over the years, but then 2016 was special in the Barossa. It is definitely one in twenty, if not more when it comes to quality, thanks to adequate spring rainfall followed by a warm, dry, calm summer that led to plenty of time to pick. Now to the best part of all, there was abundant, high quality fruit to choose from. In the glass this 78/22 shiraz/Grenache blend made from just under 100-year-old dry farmed vineyards is intense and decadent. Love the open florals, the smoke and licorice and the mix of raspberries and blueberries, all with a stylish acid/sugar balance. Juicy, not a word to use lightly with Barossa shiraz, is its calling card. Fantastic value and ready to drink.

2016 Wallace, 94 Points

Totally opaque black red core with a bright purple red hue. Lifted aromatics of black raspberries and blackberries tinged with liquorice float from the glass followed by lightly scorched vanillin cedar, a hint of earth and spice. The palate possesses terrific fruit purity and richness within its medium bodied frame delivering succulent flavours of ripe dark raspberries, blackberries, and liquorice over a back drop of vanillin cedar and faint earth finishing with a burst of spicy pepper characters. Velvet smooth, perfectly integrated tannins. Long ripe dark raspberry, liquorice, blackberry, spicy vanillin cedar, light earth and pepper aftertaste.
