

Langton's Classification

GLAETZER Amon-Ra

Glaetzer Amon-Ra Shiraz has been included in the Excellent category in the seventh edition of the Langton's Classification, just announced on 31st August 2018.

Langton's Classification is a 'form guide' of Australia's best performing and most prized wines. After 30 years and seven editions, Langton's can fairly claim that its Classification is universally accepted as the leading independent ranking of Australian wine, and arguably the leading wine classification outside Europe.

"I am thrilled to once again have Amon-Ra recognised by the Langton's Classification of Australian Wine as one of the leading examples of its kind. Amon-Ra sits among esteemed company, a true selection of the absolute best wines Australia has to offer" - Ben Glaetzer
