James Halliday

2022 Bishop – 92 points

Ben Glaetzer is pretty darn good at rolling out classic Barossan wines that over-deliver on both flavour and value for money. Deeply coloured and packed with ripe blackberry, black cherry and stewed plum with an understory of dark spice, dark chocolate bullets, choc-mint, vanillin oak, violets, olive tapenade and earth. Deeply fruited, with a thick seam of chalky tannin. Those flavours roll on for a good amount of time for an 'entry level' shiraz.

Deep crimson. Blackberry, liquorice, roasted walnut aromas. Concentrated blackberry. Roasted walnut flavours and fresh chocolaty textures. Finishes firm and tight. Drink now – keep for a while.

2022 Bishop – 91 points

The vibrant 2022 Shiraz Bishop packs quite a punch with lashings of cherry brandy, new leather and a kick of sweet oak. This is well constructed with luscious flavors accented by bright acidity and chewy tannins offering up a muscular mouthfeel which will soften over time.

The Real Review

2022 Bishop – 88 points

Aromas of plum, mulberry, spice, earth, bramble and woody edge. Dark fruited, mouth-filing, generously flavoured and straightforward in its delivery. The tannins are firm and grippy and the acidity is perky and punchy.

Sam Kim

2022 Bishop – 94 points

It's splendidly fruited and inviting on the nose, showing dark berry, warm spice, roasted hazelnut, and subtle cocoa aromas, followed by a succulent palate that displays terrific weight and a fleshy mouthfeel. Beautifully framed by silky texture and fine-grained tannins, finishing splendidly long and satisfying. At its best: now to 2035. $33.00. www.glaetzer.com. May 2025.

Ray Jordan

2022 Bishop – 94 points

An impressive, elegantly crafted Shiraz from the Ebenezer subregion within the Barossa. So much to like in this rich and lavish, highly approachable Shiraz. The depth and concentration of the fruit have demanded 40% new French oak, which has been handled effortlessly. Deep chocolate and a little ironstone complexity are a compelling combination. Firmish thread of tannin and oak in balance will handle cellaring.

James Suckling

2022 Bishop, 93 Points

A solid, well-made and linear shiraz with blackberries, dried herbs, meat and some baking spices. It's medium- to full-bodied with fine, firm tannins. Vivid, with a kick of peppercorn on the palate, balancing with the rich core of fruit. Fleshy, generous and in control, with a flavorful, persistent finish. Drink or hold.

Robert Parker Wine Advocate

2022 Bishop, 91 Points

The 2022 Bishop Shiraz is silky and concentrated, with lashings of regionally persuasive fruit and chewy tannin. Though not a hugely complex wine, it is very satisfying and delivers a convincing argument for Barossa Shiraz.
